

OUR MISSION & VISION

OUR MISSION

Huntington Junior College is a comprehensive, open-admission private institution based in Huntington, West Virginia serving students globally and committed to ensuring student learning, validating student outcomes, and promoting academic excellence as evidenced by graduate success in employment or lifelong learning.

OUR VISION

We envision a world in which all individuals have access to the educational tools they need to think independently and live abundantly.

Huntington Junior College will continue the pursuit of academic excellence by seeking various validations of the educational curricula along with analyzing and prioritizing the incorporation of additional program offerings in order to remain a top competitor in the junior college market.

In addition, the college will take a prominent role in the Tri-State region by serving the educational interests of institutions of higher learning, business leaders and employers, high school and college students, and residents. The college will experience academic and enrollment growth, which will lead to institutional enrichment.
